Hi all – YT is back from his holidays where he spent the week in the middle of Dorset in a lovely isolated converted Horse Barn with it's own lake where the fish practised "Social – Distancing" better than a 100 year old Tibetan Monk – Sheesh not even a bite all bloody week

Still, it was lovely to fish in a normal temperature today rather than the heat we have had last week. Apparently on Tuesday at Stonham, Anglers said they saw a Saharan Camel Train pass through the lakes with the head Arab fanning himself and saying "Phew"!

It was great to have 26 Anglers turn up today to enjoy a great days fishing – especially when the rain storm started at 15.59pm and 59 seconds...just heavy enough to soak everything and then it kindly stopped just as you put the last thing in the car...Grrr!
